

220 26th ST NW
Atlanta, GA 30309
(770)344-9461
cekania1998@gmail.com

Catherine E Kania

SUMMARY

Unafraid to talk to any individual. Able to hyperfocus on all work given, and will get the job done! Determined, and unable to give up, no matter how difficult things become.

EXPERIENCE

University of Mississippi, Oxford Mississippi– Volunteer Study

January 2019 – August 2019

- Volunteered as an assistant for a graduate student scientific study.
- Monitored and aided in the count of eggs and offspring of the Eastern Bluebird in the northern Mississippi area.

University of Mississippi, Oxford Mississippi– Directed Research

August 2019 – May 2021

- Volunteered as an assistant for a graduate student scientific study.
- Conducted and presented independent research under the guidance of a supervisor.
- Helped maintain and care for lab animals (zebra finch).

EDUCATION

Cambridge High School, Alpharetta Georgia – High School Graduate

August 2013 – May 2017, 2845 Bethany Bend, Milton, GA 30004

University of Mississippi, Oxford Mississippi – Bachelors in Biology

August 2017 – May 2021 University, MS 38677

Georgia Institute of Technology, Atlanta Georgia – Masters in Biology

August 2021 – Present Atlanta, GA 30332

AWARDS

- 3rd in the state of Georgia for the SkillsUSA competition Career Profile Portfolio in 2017.
- Coaches Assistant Award for the Cambridge High School Varsity Swim team in 2015.
- Officer of the Delta Sigma chapter of Alpha Delta Pi 2019.
- 2nd place winner of the Ole Miss Neuroscience showcase 2020, presented Exploration Of Estradiol Function In Taenaiopya Guttata Using Spatial Maze and Log Roll
- 1st place winner of the Ole Miss Neuroscience showcase 2021, presented Sex Differences in the Role of Estradiol on Recovery After Cerebellar Lesion in Zebra Finch

REFERENCES

Sarah Amonett – Graduate Student

sdamonet@go.olemiss.edu

Dr. Lainy Day– Professor/supervisor

lainyday@go.olemiss.edu

Chyna-Rae Dearman– Graduate Student

cdearma1@go.olemiss.edu